

Chef International Company for catering service is distinctive that it is a company which gathers great experience in nutrition field by catering system between its elements and provides accommodation services for petroleum companies, working in Egypt. It combines the best persons who have special experience in performing this works in its system. The head of this system is Mr. Sherif El Sheikh as a chairman of board directors and managing director, who worked at the Egyptian Austrian Company and served as an executive general manager since 1997 till 2012. This work extremely affects for gaining experience about dealing with all levels of petroleum companies. Thus, the number of contacted sites became 35 sites of work, at the time when he ended his responsibilities there, where all the contactors witness that it works efficiently. In addition to, the company owns all the necessary equipments, materials and tools to perform works in land or sea, but, on the decent and passable level for petroleum companies in Egypt.

It is our pleasure to deal with your esteemed company and provide our distinguished services for one of the most deep- rooted companies in its field.